(If we are to play outdoors we must be in an area which is protected from the elements.)

The Lydian Trio will arrive 10 minutes prior to performance time to set up. Please provide adequate space and 3 chairs without arms. The trio will perform for the first hour and will take a 10 minute break for each additional hour of playing. Any extra time beyond the specified time frame will be charged for in ½ hour increments. The Lydian Trio reserves the right to leave the venue at the pre-arranged completion time if additional time required is deemed to be unacceptable. Events held outside the city of Calgary will be subject to an additional travel charge.

In addition to works on our repertoire list, a specific musical arrangement may be requested. These requests require advance notice and will carry an additional expense dependent on the cost of music or cost to have the music arranged for the trio.
